Why are they important? Imagine a world with no rules; What would it be like to live in a place like this? What are the consequences of not following rules? Key messages: You are responsible for your own words and actions. Our actions have consequences. Ambition – Bravery - Respect Discuss our school values	Manners/ Politeness What do good manners look like at home and when you are out and about? Key messages: Courtesy, politeness or having good manners are all about respecting others and yourself. How can we be polite? How does being polite improve your relationships with others? Key messages: Think carefully about the impression you leave on others. Would you want to be remembered as being polite or ill-mannered?	British Values Mutual Respect What is respect? How do you show respect? How does it feel when you are not shown respect? Key messages: Treat others as you wish to be treated. You have to give it to get it! Respect is something you earn.	Honesty What is honesty? What is a lie? Have you ever told a lie? Give me an example of a lie. Give me an example of a truth. How do you feel when somebody lies to you? Who do you know that is honest? Do you trust them? Key messages: Honesty is the best policy. Be truthful in what you say and do.	Mental Health Day British Values Mutual Respect/Tolerance Care, Kindness, Love What does tolerance mean? Can you think of things or people you find it hard to show tolerance to? What are the effects of people being intolerant towards each other? How could we encourage each other to show more tolerance? Key messages: Peace begins with tolerance and respect for everyone.	Determination/ Resilience What does determination mean? If I say I am really determined what does this mean? Key Messages: When I am finding something difficult, help me to reach inside and be more determined. When I can't do something, help me to think that I can't do it yet, rather than I will never be able to do it. Help me to realize that being determined will help me throughout my life.	Safety Mischief Night/Halloween – Rule of Law – Respect community How can we be respectful citizens in our community? Key Messages: Think carefully about the consequences of our actions.
