

Understand both the books they read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:

...drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher

- What do you already know about this topic?
- Have you ever been in a similar situation? What happened? How did you feel or behave?

Understand both the books they read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:

...checking that the text makes sense to them as they read, and correcting mistakes

- Did that make sense? Can you work out what this (unfamiliar) word means by reading around it?
- How does punctuation help you to read for sense?

Understand both the books they read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:

...making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done

- Why did (a character) behave in this way?
- Can you choose a character from the story that interests you and say why?
- How does the character feel at this point in the story? Can you find clues in the text and illustrations to show me why you think this?

Understand both the books they read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:

...predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far

- Based on the cover/this chapter/section, what do you think the book/next section will be about?
- Using role play, can you act out what you think might happen?

Reading Comprehension Year 2 Parent Information

Oyster Park Primary Academy

Reading is an important skill, which aids learning in all curriculum areas. At Oyster Park Primary we are dedicated to ensuring children develop a love of reading and become confident readers. We understand the importance of parent partnerships and this booklet provides information for parents and carers on strategies to support and develop reading comprehension at home.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this booklet or want support in knowing, how best to help your child please talk to your child's teacher.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn the more places you will go!"
